

Legislative Decree 196/2003 “Personal data protection code”

Pursuant to art. 13 Legislative Decree 196/2003 “Personal data protection code”, we inform you hereby that the personal data provided by you through a request for participation in the exhibitions and events organised or co-organised by us, will be processed in compliance with the legislation above.

The data controller is Proposte srl, Viale Sarca 223, 20126 Milano, Italy, info@propostefair.it.

The data processing, excluding sensitive or judicial data, will be performed with the aid of paper and/or automated instruments and will in general include the operations necessary to handle your name for the participation in the event (such as registration, issuing of badges, access cards, etc.), as provided for in art. 4 of Legislative Decree 196/2003.

Your personal data may also be collected in the occasion of your visit to exhibitors and used for statistical purposes and organisational requirements. This data may also be used to send you communications about future events organized by us, without prejudice to your right to be excluded therefrom by giving prior notice.

Said data will only be handled for as long as it is needed to carry out the event and will be kept in our file for at least four years thereafter, as required to compare statistics.

We also inform you that you can exercise your rights, under art. 7 et seq. of Legislative Decree 196/2003, to check, modify and cancel your data, writing to Proposte srl.

The subjects that, within the scope of their duties, may access your data are the employees of our administration office, who are specifically entrusted with data storage and management, and of our image and communication office who are entrusted with dispatch of invitations and entry badges.

Though generally facultative, we remind you that failing your authorization to provide your data to the aforementioned subjects, we will not be in the position to supply you with the information required or the participation in the event.
